FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

OZARK MOUNTAIN LEGACY NAMES NEW BOARD AND LEADERSHIP TEAM Legacy Develops Into 501c3 Non-Profit – Serving Stone and Taney Counties

The area's Ozark Mountain Legacy is becoming a 501c3 non-profit organization equipped to help communities all across Ozark Mountain Country engage citizens to Champion our area's Core Values: Family, Faith, Friends, Flag and Future.

The newly formed Board of Directors includes a dynamic group of passionate individuals from across Stone and Taney Counties: John Baltes (Co-Chair), Silver Dollar City Foundation; Sue Head (Co-Chair), Keeter Center at CofO; Larry Cline, Rockaway Beach Mayor; Dean Kruithof, Branson City Administrator; Dennis Wood, Stone County Commissioner; Howard Boyd, Servant Foundation/Pastor; Gail Myer, Myer Hotels; Jory Rolf, Make Believers and AIM Around the World (Legacy Administrator); Mike Mason, Reeds Spring Schools Superintendent and Don Phillips, MO State Representative.

The new Legacy Board has recently selected John Baltes and Sue Head as Legacy Co-Chair Presidents and Jory Rolf as the Administrator for the Ozark Mountain Legacy. As the new Legacy Administrator, Jory is committed to serving as a catalyst to assist individuals and communities, across Ozark Mountain Country, to cooperatively meet the legitimate needs in their communities through servant-focused efforts. Rolf says, "I can't wait to get out into the communities to build relationships and to help Ozark Mountain Country citizens reach our preferred future reflected in our Ozark Mountain Legacy."

The Legacy Team is passionate about developing Legacy Catalyst Teams in each OMC City across Stone and Taney Counties. You can stop by the new Legacy office located at God and Country Gardens on Hwy 76 in Branson to pick up your free framed copy of our Ozark Mountain Legacy for your home, organization, church or business.
